Southwest Homes of Exception Design & Style
We believe that quality of life can be enhanced by living in a space that is filled with style and attention to detail. When you wake up in a home that surrounds you with luxurious details and artistic touches, you feel renewed and energetic. Creative design elements can be found throughout our homes. Beautiful fixtures, upgraded appliances, stylish flooring and elegant trim elements are standard. You will find quality construction and energy efficiency in every home.

Testimonial:

We purchased a home from Enchanted Spaces. My husband and I are very impressed with the quality of construction and attention to detail. We highly recommend Mike Danzer and Enchanted Spaces to others who have a dream of building/purchasing a unique custom home. Our experience with Mike has been extremely positive.
