

Placitas Community Flea Market

Looking for a fun and local place to sell your garage sale items or perhaps you have jewelry, pottery, antique items, or whatever to sell and give back to your community as well? Come to the Placitas Community Flea Market at the Homestead Village open field to sell goods, or perhaps to buy a treasure or two and help give back to your community.

This year, the flea market is giving back to our community by featuring a non-profit and/or community organization located in Placitas. The fabulous news is, we have received an overwhelming response and have a different non-profit/community organization featured for all 13 Saturday markets!

Vendor space is still $10.00 for each 10x10 space. Bring your own table, chairs and tents, which must be weighted down. Vendor spaces are available on a first come basis. Come early to choose your spot.

All vendor fees paid for that particular Saturday will go to the featured organization or non-profit.

(No beverages/food or firearms can be sold)
