

PLACITAS CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Sandoval County Hosts Workshop for Home-Based Entrepreneurs

---

Chamber Members, below is information on this final workshop in a series presented by Sandoval County.

Do you own and operate a home office-based business in Sandoval County? Are you looking for details on tax credit programs? Would you benefit from information on Federal and State incentives?

Sandoval County's Economic Development Department can help! The department is working to help local businesses thrive, by hosting an educational workshop about State and Federal incentives and tax credit programs for existing home office-based entrepreneurs on Wednesday, April 25 at the El Zocalo Event Center from 8:30 a.m. to 10 a.m.

Participation in the workshop is free and will be paid for with funds from a $10,000 grant received through the State of New Mexico Economic Development Department. The April 25 workshop will feature presentations by Bob Preble of the Sandoval Economic Alliance and Lorraine Ruggles of New Mexico Workforce Connection. The workshop format will be fairly casual to encourage productive dialogue and collaboration between the presenters and business owners.

This workshop will be held at the El Zocalo Event Center located at 264 S. Camino del Pueblo, Bernalillo, NM 87004. Please go to the Visitor's Center upon arrival, and then you'll see the event signage. Seating is limited and registration is encouraged. Those who wish to attend may register by calling Wendy Ederer at (505) 238-3004 or emailing wendy@cornerstoneconsultingassoc.com. Again, the workshop is free to attend.

This workshop for home office-based entrepreneurs is the final presentation in a series of events within Sandoval County aimed at supporting local businesses and creating new jobs.
