A dream realized in late 2007, YogaCrossroads is a boutique yoga studio located on the northwest side of Placitas, in Sundance Mesa.

We offer a quiet, peaceful setting for small group classes, private lessons and therapeutic yoga; with attention to individual student needs.

A regular class schedule is posted to our website, newsletters are posted to our Facebook page.

If you are at a personal, professional or intellectual crossroads in life; seeking a higher level of health or well-being; new to yoga or an experienced practitioner, YogaCrossroads can assist in meeting your yoga needs.
